Entries for the Missouri Valley Conference Meet to be held at Ames, May 25 and 26, will close Saturday. Only eight schools have registered so far, and indications are that there will be fewer schools represented this year than in previous years. The teams which have entered are Missouri, Kansas, Ames, Nebraska, Kansas Aggies, Drake, Simpson and Grinnell.

C. L. Brewer, director of Athletics, said yesterday that Ames, Drake and Kansas Aggies have practically lost their whole teams through enlistment in the army and farm work. Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska are materially weakened also. The latest to leave the ranks of Tigerdom is Renick. Bob's running-mate in the hurdles.

Bob's Renown Reaches Battle-front in Europe.

Bob Simpson's reputation has reached the battle-front in Europe. He has received word from Jerry Horan, Royal Field Artillery, now in France, asking him for the address of several English and American champion runners. The soldier says that he has heard of Bob in the Sporting Chronicle and that he would be glad to forward a copy when he heard from Simpson.

The envelope was addressed to Mr. Robert Simpson, Hurdle Champion, University of Missouri, America. On the back of the envelope was written: "Run, postman, run And be a soldier's chum, please."

Women Will Hold Track Meet Saturday Morning.

The women's athletic department is putting the finishing touches to its activities. The swimming meet held a few days ago at Stephens College was won by the sophomores. The juniors and seniors tied for the baseball championship. A track meet will be held Saturday morning on the women's athletic field. There will be dashes, relays, broad jump, high jump and basketball and basketball throws. Saturday afternoon the members of the W. A. A. will go on a hike.

Phi Gams and Phi Deltas Win Ball Games.

Two baseball games were played yesterday afternoon in the Pan-Hellenic League. The Phi Gamma Deltas defeated the Sigma Nu team 8 to 5. Slusher, Tiger first baseman, pitched for the winning team. The Phi Delta Theta team staged a rally in the fifth inning and defeated the Alpha Tau Omegas 5 to 4. This game was a pitchers' battle and some close plays at the home plate were features.

TO PLANT FLOWERS BY WABASH

Civic League to Request New Safety Posts—Seeks City Beauty.

The Civic League in co-operation with J. C. Abbott, agent of the Wabash Railway, will begin tomorrow to prepare the ground around the station for flower pots. This was reported at the meeting of the Civic League at the Y. M. C. A. building yesterday afternoon.

The League appointed a committee to see the mayor about the Safety First posts down town in an effort to get concrete posts where the old ones now are. The committee will also request the mayor to have the lights in the down-town district washed, as complaint has been made to the League about them. The members also made plans for more flower gardens.

"If we ever wanted flowers to make the town beautiful, we do now," said Mrs. J. G. Babb, in urging the members of the League not to neglect their gardens. Mrs. W. E. Harshe, president of the League, said that Clean-Up Week was the most successful one that Columbia has ever had, and that the League feels very grateful to the people who gave their services to help make it successful.

Journalism Week Notes

Mrs. Mabelle Calment, who has written short stories, is now directing her efforts in entertainment for the little folk in a book called "Alphabet Land," in which she is trying to make the letters interesting by making pictures of them.

Ed Watson, the jovial editor of the Columbia Tribune, although handicapped by the fact that he is a native, seemed to take well with his audience yesterday morning. His talk was on "The Value of Home News," and in it he gave ample justification for his paper's policy in going to great expense to stress local and personal news.

Mrs. Nettie Hall Austin, of the Hannibal Journal, is the only woman political reporter in Missouri. For six years Mrs. Austin has covered the State Legislature, and has done other political writing.

According to T. Elmore Lucey, inspiration for his best poems came to him while on the train or on the ocean. Many of the contributions to "Cinders and Sawdust" came while traveling in Cuba, Guatemala City, Panama and Mexico.

Mrs. Ida Bryan Eastman of Chillicothe, a popular short story writer, has proved that she can not only wield the pen efficiently, but can do anything that comes to hand. Her husband is an automobile salesman who owns a garage. Since war was declared, Mr. Eastman has been unable to keep mechanics, so Mrs. Eastman dons her khaki uniform, reports at the garage promptly at 7 o'clock every morning and labors until 6 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Eastman's mother, Mrs. Mable Hillyer Eastman, is also a writer of some note. She has written poems for the Kansas City Star for fifteen years. Munsey's Magazine for March contained one of her poems, and she has written household articles for different magazines.

You have often seen the phrase, "bubbling humor," but probably you have never heard anyone speak of a bubble of humor. And yet there is such a thing. It's "Fatty Lewis" of Kansas City, the famous Journalism Week wit. His friends say that in all his good-natured corpulence he looks as rounded and harmless as a soap bubble; and when he tells one of his "good ones" about his wife, you momentarily expect the bubble to lift with the breeze—so light is his humor.

Miss Laura Schmitz, reporter on the Chillicothe Tribune, and a writer of special articles which have seen the light of day in some of the best magazines, admits that she has a secret ambition. But Miss Schmitz is withholding it until she writes the great American novel, and then will give an interview.

The forceful tone with which Henry P. Robbins, editorial writer for the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, gave his address this morning on "The Writing of Editorials" led several in the audience to remark after his speech, "That man would have made a better preacher than an editor." It is said he has a brother who is a preacher.
